

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Foreword	viii
Introduction	ix
About the Book	x
Author's Note to the Reader	x
Chapter 1: Understanding the Problem	1
Multiple Sides of "Trouble"	1
What Is at the Root of the Problem?	3
Failure To Recruit, Orient, and Onboard Properly	4
Recruiting Board Members for the Wrong Reasons	5
Providing Purpose to Board Work	6
Failure To Understand Legal Obligations	7
Failure To Embrace Board Work as Teamwork	9
Failure To Manage Personal Issues or Special Cases	13
Chapter 2: Poor Boardmanship	15
Disrupted Board Meetings	15
Behavior: Doesn't Come to Meetings	18
Behavior: Arrives Late to Meetings	20
Behavior: Comes Unprepared.....	21
Weakened Personality of the Board	23
Behavior: Confuses Roles and Responsibilities	25
Behavior: Micromanages	27
Behavior: Fails To Integrate into Organizational Culture ..	29
Behavior: Deviates from Mission	31
Pushing an "Uncollective" Board Process	33
Behavior: Doesn't Follow Through	33
Behavior: Fails To Honor Financial Commitments	36
Behavior: Undermines the Board Chair	38
Behavior: Insists on Personal Opinion in the Face of Majority Decisions	41
Behavior: Criticizes the Organization in Public.....	42
Serving Dual Interests	43
Behavior: Fails To Maintain Confidentiality	44
Behavior: Serves Personal Interests or Multiple Loyalties ..	46
Behavior: Seeks or Receives Inappropriate Financial Return from Affiliation	49

Chapter 3: Poor People Skills and Personality Conflicts.....	51
Damaged Board Work.....	51
Behavior: Doesn't Work as a Team Player	52
Behavior: Has Sidebars with Others in Meetings or Offline Conversations	53
Behavior: Bullies or Displays a Controlling Personality ...	54
Shoddy Decision Making	56
Behavior: Won't Accept Change	57
Behavior: Creates Cliques and Group Divisions	60
Behavior: Acts without Authority	61
Behavior: Tells Lies	62
Inefficient Board Discussions	63
Behavior: Is High Maintenance	64
Behavior: Monopolizes Conversations	65
Behavior: Sits Silently	66
Chapter 4: Misfits and Delicate (but Troublesome)
Circumstances.....	69
Illegal Activity.....	69
Fraudulent Behavior.....	69
Sexual Harassment	71
Political Positions That Create Problems for the Organization.....	71
Personal Challenges	71
Emotional Issues and Dependency	71
Unique Attributes	72
Founder's Syndrome	72
The Troublesome Board Chair	75
Dealing with a Troublesome Chief Executive	78
Chapter 5: We're Only Human	81
In Another's Shoes	81
Who Says There Is a Problem?	81
Holding Up the Mirror	82
Good Night and Good Luck	83
Conclusion	85
Suggested Resources.....	87
About the Author	90

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to thank the numerous individuals who have helped me in my research and brainstorming about this topic. A very special thanks to three longtime friends and mentors: Dick Snowdon, who for this book and for years always has just the right story and the right words to get a point across; Catherine Irwin, for the gift of lessons on building community and stewardship versus ego; and Joyce Henderson, for the benefit of her critical eye, deep knowledge, vast experience, and eternally positive presence.

Special thanks to the team at BoardSource, especially Marla Bobowick and Karen Hansen. And without Claire Perella's diligence, insights, and brilliance, the final product would not be half of what it is. I deeply appreciate all her help and good cheer.

This text builds on previous ideas and the author sincerely thanks Maureen Robinson for the benefit of her work and thoughts on the many different kinds of "trouble," and for reminding us that a troublesome board can be a very different animal than a troublesome board member (or a few). Additionally, thank you to Mark Bailey, author of the previous BoardSource publication, The Troublesome Board Member.

A loving thank you to Alvin R. Kissman, Gerald Kissman, and Rick Reitz for making sure I had a beautiful new Asclepian in which to heal — think, dream, research, and write. To Elise Yanker I offer my gratitude for deepening my understanding of team theory and how applicable it is to almost everything in life. And to those others I am grateful to have met and know in the human journey, who gave freely of time, insights, stories, and help: Jan Adamec, Gayle Anderson, Naseer Aruri, Bernice Bass de Martinez, Deborah A. Bricker, Brian Carpenter, Jane Cohen, Carolyn Coleman, Cheryl Cooper, Kae Dakin, Julie Danis, Fran D'Ooge, Tom DiGiovanni, Lynne Friedmann, Deborah Milstein Gardner, Bryant George, Chuck Gould, Mary Gray, Frances Hesselbein, Nadia Hijab, Leslie Hindman, Cheryl Kagan, Brian Kissman, Dave Kissman, Nadra D. Kissman, Rachel Kraft, Peter Jablow, the women of Leadership America, Cindy Lewin, Karla Madison, Alicia Mullen, Collette Murray, Jeanne Oakes, Eliot Pfanstiehl, Margaret Poole, Lana Porter, Ane Powers, Rebecca Rush, David Sadd, Richard C. Shadyac, Sr., Ruth Ann Skaff, Jeffrey Slavin, Patricia Stocker, Volunteers of America, Lisa Werner, Jerry Whiddon, and those several others who specifically asked to remain anonymous.

I dedicate this book to the memory of my late husband, Samih K. Farsoun, who taught me much about integrity, respecting others, living life well, and the ultimate power of love.

Finally, I offer: No one is perfect. No one gets it right every time. But it is in the trying, the learning of lessons, the exchange of kindness, and the celebrating of successes together that the world is made better.